

DUNSTAN NETTO

Dunstan Netto is a leading facilitator and trainer for the BowTieXP software. With significant hands-on risk management experience from the shop floor to the board room, Dunstan has coached, mentored, facilitated and trained various personnel to meet the demanding environments in which businesses operate.

His wealth of industry experience of over two and a half decades comes from having worked in various industry sectors that include manufacturing, heavy industry, mining and oil and gas sectors in various geographical locations nationally and internationally.

Dunstan has held various management positions in industry that include Production Manager, Plant Engineer, Site Engineer, Maintenance Manager, Operational Readiness Advisor, Continuous Improvement Lead, Site Engineer and Senior Consultant. Experience includes managing various Capital Projects, Asset/Maintenance Management, Operations Management, Risk Management, Auditing, Performance Management, Strategic Management and Lean for Continuous Improvement.

Dunstan holds an MBA from Griffith University in Australia, Master in Maintenance Management from CQU, Australia and a Graduate Certificate in Human Resources Management from CQU in Australia. This is in addition to formal auditing, trade and other technical qualifications. He is also a member of the AMC, GMAA and Golden Key Honour Society.

RISK MANAGEMENT & BOWTIE

- Facilitate and deliver BowTieXP risk management public training workshops in capital cities in Australia and Internationally.
- Develop risk templates and risk management procedures for various clients. Coach and mentor personnel in risk management principles and processes using the Bowtie methodology and ISO 31000 standards.
- Developed and implemented Risk Management Program and Permit System for the Bundaberg Distilling Company, with hazardous area classification.
- Management of the permit system in hazardous areas during normal operations and shutdown periods for maintenance and capital projects at various sites.
- Developed and delivered inductions for contractor and contractor management at various operational sites.
- Developed the 5 year rolling mine production planning model and corporate risk management training material based on ISO31000 & ISO31010 for Vale Australia.
- Facilitated HAZOP workshops for various capital and improvement projects for explosives manufacturing at Dyno Nobel.
- Conducted MDG15 Audits and produced reports for mobile mining equipment in the Hunter Valley region of NSW.
- Designed, developed, delivered and assessed a post graduate course in "Managing Project Risk" for executive development at Griffith University in Brisbane.
- Developed frameworks and processes for mine production planning, maintenance work management, risk management and asset life cycle strategies.
- Carried out various management and maintenance audits in the manufacturing and resource sector and made strategic recommendations for improvement based on ISO9001 Quality Management System.
- Developed asset management strategies and implemented various maintenance management software programs to support business continuity and improve business performance.

MARKETS / CLIENTS

- Dunstan has trained various personnel from national, global and Fortune 500 companies around the world. Sample list of Companies include Anglo American, Barrick Gold, Civil Aviation Authority, Santos, Origin, Contact Energy, Energex, BAE Systems, Malaysian Airlines, Sealestial Marine, Petronas, Arrow Energy, BHP, FMG, Telstra and many more.
- Personnel that attended the training include Engineers, Risk Professionals, Management Professionals, Consultants, Corporate Level Managers and Company Directors from the various industry sectors.